Acknowledgment of Authority:

By payment of annual dues participants agree to abide by the rules and regulations set forth in this document by Buckers Unlimited LLC.

Members:

Annual fee of $150 is due on January 1 of each year and required to be paid before entering any BULLc event. A member application needs to be completely filled out and sent along with payment for the full membership to the Buckers Unlimited LLC PO Box 149 Platteville, CO 80651 Attn: Tenneile Rice. If membership is not paid before an event a participant has the option to pay in cash at his first event. Any nonpaying member will not be allowed to compete at any BULLc produced event.

General Regulations:

1. Misconduct & Cheating:

In the event a participant becomes verbally or physically abusive to any official, judge, employee or other participant, BULLc reserves the right to disqualify that person and their entries from that event and/or revoke their participation rights in the future events. Any winnings or entry fees will be forfeited. Misconduct and/or cheating or attempting to cheat shall result in major disciplinary actions, including, but not limited to suspension and/or fine. A second offense will result in suspensions from entering BULLc events and a $10,000 fine. A third offense will result in a lifetime suspension from entering any BULLc events.

2. Bad Checks:

In the event a participant pays his or her entry or membership with a check that is returned, the first offense will result in a $100 fine and replacement with another check. The second offense will result in a $1000 fine, forfeiture of any winnings and replacement with a cashier's check or money order. After a second offense, payment of all fees will be on cash, cashier check or money order basis only. Thirty days will be given after the second offense to reconcile your account or your membership will be suspended for one year from the date of the bad check. You may become eligible after the one year penalty upon receipt of your balance due plus any incurred penalties.

3. Penalties:

In the event a participant competes with an ineligible animal resulting in disqualification, the first offense penalty is disqualification of that animal from that and future events of that age classification and forfeiture of winnings and entry fees only. The second offense is punishable by disqualification of that animal from that and future events of that age classification, forfeiture of all winnings and entry fees and a $10,000 fine and one year suspension of that owner from participation.

4. Appeal/Grievance/Complaint Procedures:

Buckers Unlimited member must submit his or her case in writing within 30 days of the incident. The appeal/grievance/ complaint will be reviewed by a board member.

If the person filing the complaint is unhappy with the decision of said board member and wishes to have the appeal/grievance/ complaint reviewed by the board, then a signed written letter and $250 grievance fee must be sent to Buckers Unlimited. The board will schedule a special meeting to review. Each case will be reviewed on its own merit and the ultimate decision of the board is final. If the board agrees with the appeal / grievance /complaint the $250 (minus any fees accrued by the board to review) will be returned to the member filing the complaint. If the board disagrees the $250 will not be refunded.

Only named members on membership form can file an appeal / grievance / complaint.

5. Right of Refusal:

While every effort to accommodate each dues paying member will be made, it is important to note that Buckers Unlimited llc is a private company with obligations to its shareholders. If in the opinion of the board of directors, or the management of the company, it is determined that doing so would comprise the integrity, or in any way be detrimental to the best interest of the company, BULLc reserves the right to elect not to conduct business with whomever it chooses.

6. Acknowledgement of Risk:

By entering an animal and/or attending a BULLc produced or sanctioned event participants assume the risk inherent in any bovine/rodeo type activity and holds BULLc harmless. Buckers Unlimited LLC, nor its shareholders, directors, employees, volunteers, or contractors shall be responsible for any injury, death, or loss of any animal entered or present for any other reason at any BULLc produced or sanctioned event. Nor will BULLc be responsible for the injury or death of any person attending any BULLc produced or sanctioned event.

7. Acknowledgement of Authority:

By payment of annual membership dues, participants will agree to abide by the rules and regulations set forth in this document, and to be subject to the provisions of the same.

Yearling bulls must be tipped to the diameter of a quarter as of July 1st, 2018, events before July 1st, yearling's horns must not be deemed as "sharp". At the discretion of a judge, if an un-tipped or inadequately tipped animal arrives at any BULLc produced or sanctioned event, the bull must be tipped. Any member who has a repeating offense, will be fined $250 penalty fee. Failure to comply may result in forfeit or loss of any and all fees and related expenses to the owner.

13. Draw/Chute Position:

Bucking order will be determined by random draw of an owner. The order of the draw will be bucked first to last in the draw order in one round format. Positions may be altered, as needed, by the producer and/or chute boss to allow proper left hand and right hand deliveries per section.

14. Tie Breakers:

There will be no tie breakers employed by BULLc produced or sanctioned events. If animals are tied after scores are audited, a straight split will be used.

15. Withdrawal:

Prior to the entries closing a bull may be withdrawn without penalty or forfeit of entry fees. After entry closings, owner may withdraw animal from competition for any reason. However, doing so will forfeit all entry fees, unless a VET RELEASE is obtained. In the event a vet release is provided to BULLc, entry fees will be refunded, but the bull may be ineligible for 30 days from released event. In some cases a video of the bull may be required in lieu of a vet release (per the discretion of the board).

16. Alternates:

Alternates will be defined as bulls entered but not taken due to unavailable positions and will be created by either, draw or preference. Should any withdraws occur prior to the rider draw, the alternates will be moved into the event replacing the withdrawn bull, in descending order. If no alternates are available, owners may substitute an alternate animal of like ownership provided all requirements are met, and the original animal is withdrawn with notification of substitution prior to the draw for the first round of competition.

17. Personnel:

At all BULLc produced and sanctioned events gate men, arena help and production labor will be provided and chosen by the BULLc board. Only these designated individuals will be permitted to conduct their specific tasks.

Dummy bulls will buck for 4 seconds.

Riders are required to stay on for 8 seconds to obtain a score.

The clock starts once any part of the bull breaks the plane of the chute.

24. Dummies:

BULLc will provide BULLc manufactured dummies for all events.

Futurity bulls competing in BULLc produced or sanctioned events will buck for 4 seconds using a dummy

Yearling bulls competing in BULLc produced or sanctioned events will buck for 4 seconds using a dummy.

Dummy will be applied to yearling and futurity bulls by designated event labor.

25. Arrival / Check-In:

Check in times will be event specific. Participants must contact BULLc to make arrangements for early or late arrival outside designated check in times.

Late arrivals may be subject to $100 per bull late arrival penalty. Habitual late arrivals may be subject to higher penalty and/or disqualification. Late is defined as not being in line at the designated close time for check in of animals. Check-in officials will determine the end of the line and whether a fine will be assessed.

A BULLc judge will be present at check in and will fine any bull that is not tipped, branded, or ear tagged $50. BULLc stands by the decision of the judge and their estimate is final.

26. Check Out Time:

No one is allowed to load out during events.

27. Dress Code:

All Participants at BULLc produced and sanctioned events, who are behind the bucking chutes, will be required to adhere to a western dress code and wear jeans, long sleeve shirt with collar and a western cowboy hat. A short sleeve, button shirt with a collar and a western cowboy hat will be accepted during yearling and futurity competitions. Those not adhering to this rule may be asked to leave the area behind the bucking chutes.

28. Drug testing:

BULLc reserves the right to collect samples including, but not limited to tissue and/or fluids, from bulls for any reason deemed necessary, specific or otherwise.

Participants and BULLc produced and sanctioned events will NOT be allowed to administer any medication or injection for any reason to a bucking bull(s) while on site at an event competing.

If an animal becomes sick, lame or injured on site at an event, and must receive veterinary care or be administered medication on site at the event prior to competing, animal will become ineligible to compete and entry fees will be forfeited.

Any participants or persons found to have tampered with or attempted to tamper with and/or administer or introduce any drug or agent to enhance or sedate any bucking bull(s) at an event will be disqualified and subject to a fine and disciplinary actions.

BULLc will maintain a zero tolerance for the use of anabolic steroids, beta agonists, growth factors and antipsychotics that may chemically enhance the performance of a bucking bull(s).

29. Co-Sanction events:

In the instance, BULLc chooses to co-sanction another association's event. BULLc members may request BULLc points and pay a $50 fee per bull per event for said point. BULLc retains the right to allow or disallow any outside associations to grant the options for BULLc points. To qualify a bull for the finals the bull must have competed at a minimum of 1 regular season BULLc event.
